MOUNTAINBIKE ROUTE 2025

LIENZ

- Dolomitenstadion
- Handover from the paraglider to the mountain biker
- Along the Drau River to the village center of Leisach

LEISACH (636HM)

- Through the town of Leisach up to the starting point for women
- From the women's starting point, ride down to the Moosalm reservoir via the forest path

MOOSALM (1015HM)

- At the southern part of the reservoir, ride down through the forest on the left side of the ski slope to Moosalm. From there, take the forest path back to the reservoir, where the first refreshment station is located on the northern shore.

STADTWEG

- From the reservoir, take the city road towards Hochsteinhütte
- Second refreshment station at the junction of the city road towards Hochsteinhütte
- Follow the forest path towards Hochsteinhütte and „Taxer Gassl“
- Abzweigung vom Russenweg zur Hochsteinhütte, 3. Labestation
- Turn off from the Russenweg towards Hochsteinhütte, third refreshment station
- The last section of the „Russenweg“ to Hochsteinhütte requires carrying, pushing, or riding the bike.
- Continue from there towards Hochsteinkreuz

HOCHSTEINKREUZ (2057HM)

- The downhill starts from there with a loop towards „Gampelehütte“ (2041m), and then back to Hochsteinhütte

HOCHSTEINHÜTTE (2025HM)

- From there, ride down the ski slope „Gamsabfahrt“ to Sternalm

STERNALM (1505HM)

- Past the Sternalm via the ski slope to the ladies' start and via the forest path to the Moosalm, which is already familiar from the ascent. Cross in front of the Moosalm and head towards the Family Trail, then enter the trail.

„FAMILY - TRAIL“

- until you cross the Stichweg, shortly Pepi Stieglerweg, turn off to Wolfesgrabenbachweg, then follow the Richard-Fellner-Weg to the Gemeindeweg Oberlienz. At the end of the path, walk about 300 meters across the field crossing of Glanzerstraßeweg to the gravel pit.

SCHOTTERGRUBE
„STEINER“ IN GLANZ

- FINISH (700m above sea level)

TIPS

Knowing the route precisely is always advantageous. It's worth riding the route a few times to avoid any nasty surprises. The bike should be as light as possible for the uphill sections and as robust as possible for the downhill sections.

DOWNHILL SECTIONS

Hochsteinkreuz, Sternalm, „Damenstart“ on the ski slope H2000, Russenweg, Taxermooß, Finish at Schottergrube „Steiner“ in Glanz.

DISQUALIFICATION REASONS

1. Non-compliance with helmet regulations
2. Incorrect bike marking (bike marking on tires or frame must be present) - Checked at the finish!
3. Not following the marked route
4. Not passing through the mandatory gates
5. External assistance (any form of external assistance is strictly prohibited!)
6. Escort vehicles of any kind (motorcycle, e-bike, mountain bike, etc.) are strictly prohibited on the course. If a rider is accompanied by someone without an official race number, immediate disqualification will follow. Marshalls will be on the course to enforce this rule.
7. Bike change (using different bikes for uphill and downhill parts is prohibited. In case of a defect, the mountain bike must be pushed or carried; no spare mountain bike or tire can be used)

Warning signs are recommendations to reduce speed! Please observe them! Training is entirely at the participant's risk. The course is open only for inspection! The head advertising space is reserved for the organizer!
